About Hult Prize

The Hult Prize empowers the next generation to reimagine the future of business. Through our year-long social entrepreneurship competition, over 100,000 young people in 120+ countries work to create high-impact startups that address the annual Challenge of the Year in alignment with the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals. Finalists pitch their businesses to a panel of expert judges, and the winning team receives $1M USD in funding to make their idea a reality.

Home to the world’s largest college and university network for social enterprise.

All university students of the world are eligible to apply for the Hult Prize Campus Director position, including all undergraduate, graduate, and postgraduate.

Please visit our Hult Prize Terms & Conditions for more specific detail.

The OnCampus program brings the world together, one university at a time. It takes one person to launch a movement and one idea to challenge the status quo. At Hult Prize, it all starts by Campus Directors building tribes in their local communities to radically change the world through social enterprise.”

Hamdi Ben El Elmi

Senior Director of Programs
Hult Prize Foundation
